Chairman Gives Report On Old Folks' Home

TOM MORRIS RINK IN STAMPEDE BONSPILER

A rink skippered by Tom Morris of Didsbury is taking part in the first international bonspiel held in conjunction with the Calgary Stampede. The team, as we understand it, is made up of Tom and his three sons, Ken, Carl and Ronnie. In the first day of play they dropped one game in a close contest.

To The Editor,
Didsbury Pioneer,

Once again a report on the progress of the work being made re "The Old Folks' Home". We have to date collected the sum of $7,300.00, of which $7,000.00 has been paid to Mr. A. Reiber on the purchase price of the house acquired, leaving a balance of $2,500.00, to be paid in two installments over a period of two years.

We are now endeavoring to raise sufficient funds to purchase furnishings, cook stove, etc. and hope to be able to start out this fall with the operation of the home. We are in need of help in this regard. We are holding a dance Aug. 23 it was decided to write four men east of Didsbury to ask their assistance in canvassing east of town.

In the list of names given to the committee by Mr. Weber, which totalled $54,000.00, $2,800.00 has been paid to Mr. Reiber. We are still in need of help to be paid to him and we are hoping that those who promised will come through so that we should be in a position to do so.

We have been in touch with the government department of welfare and have learned that the last session voted to assist old folks homes to the extent of 90 cents per day per inmate and larger amounts for nursing homes. They will not give any grant towards the building of $40,000.00 towards nursing homes providing the community raises a minimum of $20,000.00. So to those who think they can raise $20,000.00 in the Didsbury district, the committee says go ahead and we will turn your whole project over to us including the house just bought and after you have got $19,500.00 the writer will give the remaining $500.

If anyone in the district has a single bed, mattress and spring in good condition, or one that they are not using and wish to give, they are welcome to hear from them, or if any organization similar to the W.I. who has promised to help with the furnishing of one room desires to help, we shall be pleased.

It is probably as good a time as any to thank the members of the U.F.A. Co-op for their generous donation of $150. In closing, Mr. H. Lynch-Staunton has kindly offered to accept donations and will issue official receipts for same at his office.

FRANK JACKSON,
Chairman.

Sr. Major John Steele of The Royal Canadian Air Force, Retired, Department, who has served in Southern Alberta during the past five years has now been transferred to Officer in Charge of Public Relations for the Province of British Columbia.

Major Steele addressed the Lions Club here during a recent visit in connection with the annual Red Shield Appeal.

Major B. Dunerton of London, Ont., has been appointed to replace Major Steele in Southern Alberta.

Through The Study Window

Rev. C. C. Armstrong

July and August are the holiday season. There are some unfortunate ones who get no holidays or a very short one, particularly those who are on the farm. Even here, however, more and more are able to have a holiday of some sort.

There are differences that have to be considered while on holidays, for on your return people often enquire "What you were and what you did." A minister could appropriately say "I went to Milk River" but would be embarrassed if he had to report he spent a week or so at Whiskey Gap. And of course there are always the rude and uncouth characters who enquire "What did you have for holidays?"

Nevertheless, that is a fair question. Is work a preparation for holidays, or are holidays meant to prepare us for more and better work? The attitude of most of Sundays and holidays arises out of a false view of work quite as often as it arises out of a false view of rest. A holiday is just a period of escape from routine work, we are most unfortunate, and the remedy lies in our attitude to work rather than in what we do for relaxation.

Richard Baxter in his 17th century writes about the whole duty of a minister. He words are timely. He is convinced that the greatest hindrance to his ministry is his own narrow and small conception of the work of the pastor. He was not indicating that more of a particular kind should be done, but rather for a more effective and wider range of usefulness for their salvation, as for them to come to the Church to hear a sermon.

Baxter, himself, a minister, felt both hindered and hampered by his narrow and small conception of the work of the pastor. He was not indicating that more of a particular kind should be done, but rather for a more effective and wider range of usefulness for their salvation, as for them to come to the Church to hear a sermon.

After having delivered these reflections on work, I want to make an announcement concerning the holidays. My holiday period is for the last two Sundays in July and the first two Sundays in August. Church services have been withdrawn for the last two Sundays in July but will be continued regularly throughout August.

One hopes that everyone will avail himself of the summer opportunity both for rest and worship in the holiday season.

THREE IN ONE

An Irishman, after paying his respects in the cemetery, walked about looking over some of the old tombstones. He stopped before one on which was engraved:

Here Lies

Sandy MacGregor

A Generous Father

And a Pious Man

"Hush!" exclaimed the Irishman. "Just like the Scotch — three men in one grave!"

our people to this ignorance, of their duty, but we are not bound to speak truly and plainly to who are to blame, that have not accustomed them and ourselves to any more than common public work. What a happy thing it would be if they should be as ordinary as we are all used to come in course to their ministers for personal advice, and help for their salvation, as for them to come to the Church to hear a sermon."

Baxter, himself, a minister, felt both hindered and hampered by his narrow and small conception of the work of the pastor.

He was not indicating that more of a particular kind should be done, but rather for a more effective and wider range of usefulness for their salvation, as for them to come to the Church to hear a sermon.

Stems in Calibrating Sprayers

You should be absolutely sure about the sprayer output and speed of the tractor in order to put out the correct number of gallons per acre of 2-4-D herbicide. Measure a 500 foot course and measure in seconds the time it takes to cover the distance. 34 seconds equals 4 m.p.h. 30 seconds equals 4½ m.p.h. By trial and error find the gear and nozzle combination which will give the desired speed. The solution in gallons per acre can be found as follows:

(a) Find time in seconds for outfit to travel 200 feet.

(b) Find time in seconds to catch 1 pint of nozzle on boom.

(c) Count number of nozzles on boom. Substitute the figures obtained above for a, b, c, and d in the following formula to find gallons per acre.

34.45 (seconds to travel 200 ft.) X (number of nozzles on boom) (seconds to catch 1 pint from 1 nozzle) width of boom in ft x 2.

Equals Gals. per acre.

Add 1 pint per acre and speed until desired calibrage per acre is obtained. This formula is accurate. I have used it many times. When you know how many gallons per acre your tankful will spray it is an easy thing then to put the proper amount of 2-4-D herbicide into the tank to apply the correct number of ounces of acid per acre. Be sure

Election Promises

Put a price tag on every election promise. It is well known that because of election campaigning, the heady draughts of political success or hopes of success won't do very much to tell the voter what the moon is going to cost. The Finance and Public comments. But he should remember that he is the one who will be paying the bills. Out of his pocket all the money must come. Government cannot make it or earn it.

If the voter is told he really needs and wants larger old age pensions, higher farm subsidies or a new post office, he has a perfect right to know exactly what each item will cost. How much more will add to his tax bill.

And if he is told that he will get all this and tax cuts too, then he should also ask very bluntly Where and How?

what you are doing, don't guess. If you are spraying oats, keep in mind that this crop is more easily hurt than wheat or barley. Especially late oats with its wide leaves seem more susceptible to damage. It would be safest to use an even formulation for oats, such as Ester W. With Amine, it is essential that at least 5 hours elapse between spraying and a following rain. Montcalm barley is a little more susceptible to damage from excessive rates of 2-4-D than some other types of barley. I consider that 5 ounces acid per acre is a maximum dose for Montcalm barley. Remember, 2-4-D is as nearly "fool-proof" as modern science can make it but it still requires that good judgment and common sense be exercised on the part of the operator.

CANADA PREPARES TO DEAL WITH DISASTER

THE A.B.C. OF MODERN WAR WEAPONS

Canada's planners for defence on the home front remind us that the ABC of modern war weapons is far from simple. Only skilled scientists can fully understand them. But there is no mystery about their symbols themselves. ABC as applied to lethal weapons means Atomic, Biological and Chemical agents.

Atomic weapons and their powers and peculiarities have been described in this series of articles. Canada's army is preparing to defend herself against possible atomic attack, and much of the government's advice to our people is based on the assumption that our cities could be targets for aerial attack employing this powerful new type of explosive — even as much as the more devastating hydrogen bomb.

At the same time, civil defence authorities don't want Canadians to overlook other wartime threats, any more than they want them to think that all these preparations are just for war. Not only are we providing security against atomic attack with enemy mischief, but also for handling peacetime disasters which are possibilities in the most civilized and ordered times and places. Furthermore, we must take into account other hostile acts which, if not anticipated and countered, could eventually do us quite as much harm than any A or H bomb.

At the same time, civil defence authorities don't want Canadians to overlook other wartime threats, any more than they want them to think that all these preparations are just for war. Not only are we providing security against atomic attack with enemy mischief, but also for handling peacetime disasters which are possibilities in the most civilized and ordered times and places. Furthermore, we must take into account other hostile acts which, if not anticipated and countered, could eventually do us quite as much harm than any A or H bomb.

The use of germs, toxins, etc., which is what is meant by biological warfare all through human history. You can fight such agents when you combat disease. Killing flies, spraying mosquito-breeding grounds, battling crop pests — all are aimed at preventing the spread of disease, disease of our food and pollution of our water supplies. Without such safeguards, disease would soon sweep our land and all living things in it would perish.

Treatment of city water supplies, protection of our pumps and wells in case of damage, and the use of sand and silt clearance, with eternal vigilance against such disease-carriers as the rat, are all civil defence measures with which we are so familiar that we are apt to forget, sometimes, how essential they are to our very survival.

In wartime, enemy agents could be sent to it that these protective services were discontinued, we are bound to be at great disadvantage.

Canadians everywhere must reducibly their guard and maintain high sanitary standards if war threatens.

While civic services ensure that there is no tampering with water supplies, food handling and the like, it is up to each of us to set the first signs of widespread crop infestation or pollution of rivers, ponds, etc., which water his crops, livestock and very family.

CHEMICAL AGENTS

Another danger of which we are warned is chemical warfare. All Canadians know of the gas attacks on the battlefields of World War I, and we have undoubtedly heard of widespread death through accidental discharge in peacetime of poisonous fumes from factories handling highly-toxic substances.

By introducing death-dealing substances into the very air, as well as by fouling our water supplies with chemical poisons, an enemy, with enough saboteurs and material planted throughout the country, could cripple our ability to fight.

Here again modern safeguards, such as water filtration, air testing, etc., are our hope for the early detection of such attacks. Our scientists are ready to act to fend off outbreaks, should they occur.

The ordinary citizen can help, officials say, by reporting any suspicious activity or apparent attempt to tamper with public utilities.

Farmers, station masters, school people generally know that special care must be taken at all times to prevent dangerous accumulations of fumes and other harmful substances used in certain industrial operations.

Under threat of war, they, and all of us must be

forget, sometimes, how essential they are to our very survival.

In wartime, enemy agents could be sent to it that these protective services were discontinued, we are bound to be at great disadvantage.

reducibly their guard and maintain high sanitary standards if war

WEDDINGS

ARCHER — ATKINSON

An exceptionally pretty wedding, of interest to the residents of Didsbury, and the first to be solemnized in the Mountain View United Missionary Church, was held on July 1 amid a floral setting of lilacs, peonies and other spring flowers, with Miss Margaret Flora and Atkinson, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Atkinson of Didsbury, became the bride of Gerald Crosby Archer, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Archer, also of Didsbury. Rev. Earl Archer, uncle of the groom officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a floor-length gown of white brocade satin of her own design, with fitted bodice and flowing skirt. The gown with sweetheart neckline and lily point sleeves, was trimmed with tiny satin buttons. The mist sheer lace trimmed floor length veil, fell from the shoulders over a draped brocade collar. Her only jewellery was a rhinestone necklace. The bride carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and powder fern.

Miss Kathleen Atkinson, sister of the bride, as maid of honor was attired in a floor length pastel green gown of taffeta bordered with nylon net and lace. Her chapel length veil of white lace, was held in place by a corsage of anemones. She wore three-quarter length mitts and carried a bouquet of coral tinted gladioli and tulips.

The bridesmaid, Miss Doreen Westfall of Calgary, was similarly attired in a floor length gown of pastel pink with matching veil, coronet and mitts and carried a bouquet of pastel gladioli in harmonizing shade.

The groom was attended by his brothers, Keith and Donald, of Calgary.

The wedding music was played by Miss Laurel Towers of Calgary, cousin of the bride. Miss Isabel Towers of Edmonton, also a cousin of the bride, sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The ushers were Mr. Ray Towners, son of the bride and Mr. Donald Archer, brother of the groom.

The reception for some 70 guests was held on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents. Among the 70 the occasion, a pastel blue crepe gown with lace inserts, white accessories and pink roses en corsage. Mrs. Archer wore a navy blue ensemble and red roses en corsage.

The bride's table, under white wedding bells, blue pink and white streamers, was covered with a white linen cloth having embroidered by the bride's own hands, a three-tiered wedding cake. To cut the cake the bride used an heirloom silver cake knife. She had as her waitresses, Gwen Kemp, Helen Charlton, Phyllis Jackson, Helen Rempp, Geraldine Fulkerth and Mavis Taylor.

During the reception, Miss Isobel Towers said, "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Laurel Towers. The toast to the bride was proposed by the Rev. Earl Archer and the groom ably responded.

For her going-away costume, the bride and groom chose matching grey-blue tailored suits. The bride's accessories were rose and white and she wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer are honeymooning at points in Alberta and the States and upon their return will reside east of Didsbury.

FALLEN TIMBER

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The annual school picnic, favored by lovely weather, was a great success with races and treats for everyone. The ball game played by the single men against the married men afforded much amusement, the former coming out winners. The annual baseball picnic was supplied by the local Busy Bees Club netted $27.00. A vote of thanks to the teacher, Mrs. Leda Cooper, and her helpers for a good time.

Mrs. Johnnie Howton, Danny and Jeannie spent a week in Calgary recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Moore.

We are sorry to hear that young Jeffery Carlyle has not been well. We wish him speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Fyten were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hone last week.

The regular meeting of the Busy Bees was held at the home of Mrs. G. Hone last Wednesday with eight members present. It was decided to hold a supper, bazaar and dance on Saturday in October. With a fish pond, children's games and surprise table for adults it should draw a large crowd. Also on the schedule will be an auction of two quilts and a satin comforter will be raffled.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Cooper and each member is to bring a bouquet of flowers as the roll call. Flowers will be auctioned at the meeting.

After the business session a delightful lunch was served by Mrs. Stan Morrison and Mrs. J. H. Cooper. A ten-cent draw was held with Mrs. Leda Cooper the lucky winner.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGuffin and family attended the Stampede in Oats. Also attending the Stampede were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Teynor.

Due to the work being done on the school, the regular Fallen Timber Church services will not be held for the next two Sundays, July 5 and 12.

The wedding music was played by Miss Laurel Towers of Calgary, cousin of the bride. Miss Isabel Towers of Edmonton, also a cousin of the bride, sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.
